Has the instructor been effective? *

I think that learning through the objects made learning history very interesting, and this allowed me to explore history from a different perspective.

How can the instructor improve this course? *

I would have liked more opportunities to discuss the significance of different objects before and after watching the videos and presentations. Sometimes, the class felt more like a lecture with passive participation.

How does this instructor compares with your other instructors? *

I think this instructor was very enthusiastic about their field, which translated in his teaching of history. Compared to my other teachers in my GE courses, this instructor taught us history in a different way than how we would have learned history if we had to use a textbook.

Is there anything peculiar/special about this instructor (negative or positive)? *

This instructor effectively explained the importance and the limitations of looking at history through objects.

Has the instructor been effective? *

YES

How can the instructor improve this course? *

The only thing I wished we could do more is discussion between the students. Even though we had a small class, I felt that we could not communicate much within the classroom. I usually had to give a lot of thought when commenting on something in class.

How does this instructor compares with your other instructors? *

This class was the most interesting and comprehensible history/social studies class that I have ever experienced. Because the instructor allowed students to expand our ideas even if it is outside of the particular topic discussed in class, I learned how to make connections and build a new, interconnected vision of world history.

Is there anything peculiar/special about this instructor (negative or positive)? *

I guess this is because English is not the professor's first language himself, but he always used vocabulary and sentence structure that were very clear and easy to understand. It was very surprising that you really do not need to use complex words to explain history or interrelations! I wish other professors would see this as well, haha.

How can the instructor improve this course? *

I think that the course for the most part is good as it is. Perhaps one addition could be short writings on some of the objects and issues covered. I think that short writings could help students organize their thought about a subject.

How does this instructor compares with your other instructors? *

I think that Professor Salton often presents a more critical or multifaceted approach to subjects than some of the other professors and instructors that I have had.

Is there anything peculiar/special about this instructor (negative or positive)? *

I cannot think of anything as of now.

Please add any other comment/suggestion/message.

This was a very interesting course, and helped me look at history and human relations in a new way. Thank you for a great semester.

Would you take another course with this instructor? *

- Yes
- No

Has the instructor been effective? *

Yes, it really has.

How can the instructor improve this course? *

I felt that I wish i wanted more opportunities to do class discussion. Because mostly, the instructor talked or showed the videos, which were all very interesting, but because of that, the time to make comments were not enough and even someone made comments, the instructor always answered to the comments and other students didn't have a chance to reply others. So, I want this class to increase more open discussion time.

How does this instructor compares with your other instructors? *

I was very surprised to know that he is actually professional in the legal field. His explanation why he became interested in the international filed was very unique and understandable to me, so I decided to take the course from the instructor,

Is there anything peculiar/special about this instructor (negative or positive)? *

I thought videos on Youtube were a lot because those sometimes made me sleepy. But overall, I like the contents of the class.

Please add any other comment/suggestion/message.

Personally, I am very glad to have a chance to write 3000 words essay, which was actually the first time for me to try such a long essay. Although it needed lots of time and efforts, I thought it was really worth trying. Also, the instructor always answered my e-mail messages fast with effective advices, I was glad about that too. Thank you for teaching me this semester! I really enjoyed and learned a lot in all the classes!

Would you take another course with this instructor? *

- Yes
- No

Has the instructor been effective? *

Yes, I think so. Professor always asked questions about classes. Additionally, students could ask questions about class. These things help students to understand about the class and know other member's opinion.

How can the instructor improve this course? *

I think, to use brake out room may improve this class. This is because, some people may be difficult to express their opinion in front of all class members. Few people join the brake out room, so the students may express their opinions.

How does this instructor compares with your other instructors? *

I think professor Salton ask more questions than other instructors. It is good for me.

Is there anything peculiar/special about this instructor (negative or positive)? *

I think professor's English is easy to understand for me. It is comfortable for me.
