How can the instructor improve this course?

- allot some time for free for all questions (verbal perhaps?)
- I enjoy more ppt slides than the videos, so possibly decrease the amount of videos.
- It's already great! Sometimes the discussion runs a bit long and we run out of discussion, but that is inevitable.
- the final essay is too long for 200 courses I thought
- I felt the mandatory readings are hard to read in a week. I will appreciate it if it would be easier to tackle.
- Can't really tell since the structure will change to offline, bu few more guest lecturers would be a bit more engaging
- It was a little bit difficult to follow your course for me (non-native English speaker)because you talked quite a lot what is not in the slide. It would be helpful if you could increase the number of slides or informations to put in each slide.
- I think it would be good if he came in the breakout rooms sometimes to help with discussions as sometimes people are a little confused but don't have the confidence to send a message during the discussion. The course will be better in person. I think I struggled with so many different African countries being introduced and remembering case studies but this is probably a me problem. Also, this isn't the instructor's fault but a lot of the classmates blatantly ignored the recommended time for the presentations and I found it so hard to follow/concentrate on the presentations as a result.
- Personally, I sometimes thought I was interested in hearing more of the professor's analysis or views of real-world events. Also the professor's expereince working at the UN.

How does this instructor compares with your other instructors?

- Competent and knowledgable
- This instructor outperforms the rest of my instructors easily.
- well prepared, warm, clear to understand
- I really appreciate Professor's enthusiasm while teaching and giving materials, something that not every instructor has

- In comparison with other IR courses, this has by far been the best even though this course was a bit challenging for me.
- Much better.
- more enthusiastic
- Very knowledgeable but the big number of students does not allow for more conversation based class
- More passionate than other instructors I've had.
- Generally less leaneant on deadlines. Very comprehensive, easy to understand explanations of questions.

Is there anything peculiar/special about this instructor (negative or positive)?

- Awesome
- He is very engaging and enthusiastic in class.
- The discussions are lovely and not forceful to any degree, and people are free to engage to various extents, and still have the mentimeter to discuss.
- Not the instructor, but hopefully next times north Africa would have a bit more focus
- He created the comfortable atmosphere to ask questions and easy to reach out.
- Passionate
- I really like how we use the mentimeter during the class. It's anonymous, so it allows me to express my thoughts and ideas.
- Approachable
